

Membership Requirements

All Players, Coaches and Team Officials taking part in a TDNA competition are required to hold a current TDNA Membership as well as a current Netball Victoria Membership.

To become a member of the TDNA please use the link below for the club you intend to participate with.

If you have already paid your Netball Victoria Membership through another association you still need to click on your clubs link below to become a TDNA Member. Make sure you register using the same NV Member number that the other association used to ensure you are not charged twice.
